

Police Arrest Two Men in Michigan in Kidnapping Case

BY GARY SHIFFMAN

Two garages here were arrested in connection with last Tuesday's kidnapping, assault, and shooting of a Michigan woman who was in critical condition in Northwest Community Hospital last night.

In police custody in Battle Creek, Mich., are Dennis Parsons, 24, and Nelson Weaver, 28, both of Battle Creek.

Police here said the two are recent arrivals from the Michigan State Penitentiary in Jackson.

THE WOMAN, Mrs. Sally Hanson, was found wandering near the Northwest Trolley in Palestine early Wednesday morning. She had been shot in the back, neck, and hand.

The two men were arrested Saturday by Kalamazoo County Sheriff and FBI agents as they left a Battle Creek garage.

Warrants charging the men with attempted murder were served yesterday after prosecutors from Cook and Kalamazoo counties decided the case should be tried in Illinois.

Det. L. Jerry Harmon of the Cook County Police, who being held on federal charges of transporting a stolen auto (Mrs. Hanson's) and Weaver is in custody on a charge from Illinois for the man, who are now in the Kalamazoo County Jail.

2 Ambulance Men Give Stork Assist

Two ambulance attendants turned storkmen yesterday afternoon when they delivered a 9 pound, 6 1/2 ounce baby at the Joseph Ruess home, 949 N. Ridge.

The pair, Eric Train, 420 S. Ridge, and Pat Bates, 211 S. Arlington Heights Rd., said they arrived just in time to give the stork a 4:34 p.m.

"We didn't make it to the hospital. In fact we didn't even get out of the house," Train said.

Mother Maurine and Laura Ann were "doing fine," a spokesman for Northwest Community Hospital said last night.

Husband Joseph explained the incident by calling Ruess "a fat baby."

He said the family includes two other children, 3 and 13 years old.

The two attendants work for the Hahn Funeral Home.

"We had been running in this sort of thing," Train said. "It's not unusual."

He said the preliminary plans call for completion by Dec. 1, 1969.

Tollway Start Up To State

"If X happens on Y day, their connection on the linkup between Arlington Heights Rd. and the Northwest Tollway should begin by June 1," said Tollway Commission Chairman Donald Ben-niwell.

Ben-niwell said primary plans for the linkup were recently sent to the State Department of Public Works for approval.

"We're fairly certain they'll okay them, and if they do we can get started," he said.

He said the preliminary plans call for completion by Dec. 1, 1969.

U-Night 'Payoff' Tonight

A week's effort and a year's planning will culminate tonight when the Arlington Heights United Night begins at the Municipal Building from 8 p.m. to midnight.

General chairman of the fund drive, Gordon Gluck, said the workers already have earned raising donations and collecting money, but that the drive will continue until Nov. 15.

"WE'VE GOT workers ready to give about 90 per cent of Arlington Heights," Gluck said.

He said tonight's meeting, when workers bring in the money they've collected so far, should net the fund about $15,000.

"Our goal is $55,000," Gluck said.

"We figure that the workers will have a chance to make their cash, and check with people who weren't home, by 15."

He said the efforts of this year, 1,400 workers "in the end of a year planning and preparation."

Jack Ryan, the fund's publicity chairman, said the United Fund has about $73,000 to distribute after the year.

"We work with the Metropolitan Crusade of Mercy and collect about $20,000 from them, plus one more," Ryan said.

He said the workers will reach about 16,000 homes before the drive ends.

Give Me a Place to Stand and I Can Move the World!

He's Ready to Go Back

By Catherine O'Donnell

Alfredo Parra Jr. is an unusually handsome young man. He is also an unusually brave one.

Right now, he is unusually happy. Al, as he is known to friends from his days at Palatine High School, is just home from Vietnam after a year as an army medic. He will be returning for another tour of duty Nov. 1.

During this furlough, he has seen one of his fondest dreams come true: He is helping his family move into a home of their own. Al is the oldest of ten children who will be moving from a rented house in Barrington to a multi-bedroom home in Palatine.

"I USED to dream about just that while I was in Vietnam," he is explained. "I enlisted before I graduated but I learned a lot since then. I'm going to finish school, right through college and say graduate school I can when I come back.

Alfredo is returning to Vietnam, he said, because he wants to help the people. "The people—I like the people and I like the country. The area around Palatine where I'm stationed at the base hospital is beautiful."

"I like the immaculate homes of the Vietnamese. Do you know that almost all of them bathe two and three times a day? They manage to live by selling fish of various sizes. Some of them have small shops."

"They are a quiet and gentle people and the girls, the girls are beautiful. They have straight, long black hair and they wear very bright-colored Oriental-style dresses."

"Most GI's say they don't like the people," the 20-year-old said. The fellow said they are being overcharged for everything. The way look at it, that the servicemen don't get everything they need at the PX. They don't have to go into town and pay 50 cents for a pack of cigarettes or a box of beer or soda.

"ONE SHOT of whiskey costs a dollar or two dollars. Every so often the doctors are telling the men not to buy those things because they are all black market and right from the PX anyway."

"I wouldn't say that the Vietnamese are the worst men I've met either. That's GI's as a group, not the individuals," he said. "They say the soldiers call them 'gooks.' They consider this disrespectful."

"The girls know their place," said this young

American. "They're not home like American girls."

Al said he wouldn't mind letting the American girls know he felt this way. He is indeed a brave man.

HE REACHED Palatine by way of Cam Ranh Bay, Fort Sam Houston and Fort Knox, where he took basic training. He got a 15-day furlough in the middle of the first 30 days after his basic training at Houston. He found the Army owns him 15 days somewhere along the line.

Alfredo arrived in Palatine in the middle of the Tet offensive. "It was a short town, then," he said. "It was there in the city and he spent six months 'pulling patrol.'"

"Everyone in Viet, regardless of their job, has to pull patrol," he said. A patrol goes out for two days and is off for two days. The GI's pull patrol, the ARVN, seven riflemen and Al, the medic. Their jobs are to search for the enemy, find his food and other supplies and clear them out so they can't be used.

"Some fellows say they've never been out there. Well, they've been out there. One thing we all want is more mail. Letters. You can get them when a GI gets a letter," he said. "He writes around all day with a pen on his face. Al's address is PFC Alfredo Parra, M4890, Co. A-3, 4th Medical Battalion, 90202, San Francisco."

"If you are an independent, does that mean you're going to vote for George Wallace?"

Elect Edward Hanrahan State's Attorney

The voters of Cook County can scarcely go wrong in choosing a state attorney in this election. Both candidates are excellent. Edward V. Hanrahan, Democrat, completed a brilliant record in a four-year term as U.S. attorney for the northern district of Illinois. Robert J. O'Rourke, Republican, has represented the boisterous Union team in the Chicago city council and performed well at a minority member of that body.

The decisive factor here, we believe, is experience that will carry over into the demanding job of state attorney. And so that basis The Day chooses Hanrahan.

While O'Rourke has been a practicing lawyer for many years, he lacks experience in law enforcement. He is a personable and has administrative talent, and no doubt could make the transition from city council to state attorney's office.

Hanrahan, however, already has demonstrated extraordinary ability as a prosecutor. As U.S. district attorney, he succeeded in putting large dents in the crime syndicate as no one had done before. He achieved outstanding results using the immunity laws, and by his protection of witnesses broke through the barriers that had virtually guaranteed no one would testify against gangsters.

The successful prosecution of such top-notch hoodlums as Joseph Amato, Rocco Franco and Sam Battaglia was a national sensation.

HANRAHAN PROMISES to continue in the state attorney's office the fight on behalf of the public to bring down the federal crime by using the immunity laws. He believes the opportunity may be over, but he is not ready to let it go.

The Chicago Bar Association's Hanrahan "well qualified," while it is O'Rourke's "qualified."

From the standpoint of public opinion there might be advantages in installing a Republican in the state attorney's office as a watchdog over the Chicago Democratic organization. But Hanrahan has a strong record of integrity and independence. While he wouldn't want to go out of his way to embarrass his own party, neither would he sidestep his obligation to crack down on wrongdoing.

The northwest suburban area, no less than the central city, profits from any reduction that can be made in the expenditures of organized crime, which overflows into the suburbs. The Day believes that all of Cook County would be best served by electing Edward V. Hanrahan as state's attorney.

stimulation are beneficial. Another treatment that has given excellent results in several cases is a surgical widening of the bony channel through which the inflamed nerve passes.

"The nervous pressure on the nerve which, if allowed to continue, leads to permanent degeneration of the nerve. Full recovery from this operation occurs in two to eight weeks."

"My doctor said I have emphysema. Will it drink of those things, sugar, or night make it any worse?"

"You already are emphysematous. You would have no direct effect on the disease."

Prospect's Scott Crawford was hit hard in Saturday's game against Forest View. Workhorse Crawford found himself swarmed by Falcone's offensive line in the third quarter.

Forest's Don Koehler comes to the end of a twelve yard gain on Hankie Glen Hansen's (35) tackle line.

Hansen's Don Koehler is a Scott Feltz even for a 27-yard gain. The Hansen bounded to a 46-0 rout of Falcone's Jayvets Saturday.

Board OKs Smoking for Students in District 214 Schools

By MERRILL SANDERS

Students may smoke at school grounds in High School District 214, the school board decided last night.

School principals now may establish areas inside or outside of school buildings in which students will be allowed to smoke, but the decision whether to do this will be up to each principal, said Frank Smith, president of the school board.

SCHOOL policy will now forbid students smoking on school grounds. However, the board did not try to control the students while they were off school property during school hours, unless the students were taking part in an organized class activity, like a field trip, according to Smith.

Because of this, students in area high schools often have staged grounds during lunch hour to smoke, according to Richard Bachhuber, the board's secretary.

Students from Forest View High come to gather on the west side of Campbell Rd. near the school for lunch-time smoking, according to principal Lawrence Jensen said.

For the students," Jensen said. "Also, parents and students have argued that over 200 to 300 smoking students standing around from lunch hour to the reputation of the school."

Jensen added that all of the students that gathered on the west side of Campbell do not smoke—some merely come to talk with their friends. The word is, "either during or after school," he said.

JENSEN asked the board to allow him to establish a smoking area on the Forest View High or at the school grounds where students could smoke.

At the same time, he asked the board to declare the west side of Campbell off limits to students.

Smith said this area has been off limits to students to smoke in public had been reported in 1967, so the board was not "surprised" by the controversy on smoking in the area.

"We have established two smoking areas in the school smoking in school, and one smoking lounge, but students are forced out in the cold and rain when they are smoking," Bachhuber said.

Minister Calls Charges Politics

The Rev. John Fry of the First Presbyterian Church of Chicago, who made the announcement in the recent McMillen congressional committee investigation which probed the activities of the Blackstone Rangers under the federal property program, addressed a joint meeting of the Arlington Heights and Palatine Rotary Clubs at noon yesterday.

Fry told his audience that the conclusions of the McMillen investigating committee were politically inspired and were not supported by the facts in the case.

Daylight

By Joseph Strommen

Halloween, it seems to me, used to be a season all by itself, not rivaled by any other time of the year. It was a time, beginning right after the youngsters returned to school, when the parents and the children would spend the afternoon in costume parties, and the children would be dressed in costumes that were not only scary, but also had a certain amount of humor. The costumes were not only scary, but also had a certain amount of humor. The costumes were not only scary, but also had a certain amount of humor.

THE ANNUAL costume party continued to go on, the spirit input until the day of discovery dawned. We realized, one happy Halloween, that while electric action, and the kids and trick masks provide fine fun, but are not what we need. marked with something white that's easily visible to the driver. In fact, the youngsters will forget that drivers can't see too well in bright and dark times. When the children are walking on country roads, they walk on the side facing oncoming cars. Check that if they wear a mask, they can't see too well to their front, but to the sides. Their eyes are not their faces with great pencils, crayons or colored.

REPEAT often the warning not to make quick moves into the streets, or from between cars parked at the curb, but always at well-lit street corners, and preferably in a group.

TO MAKE sure your little goblins have a merry time, with no mishaps, it's timely to remember that they may cross streets or driveways with people driving in the dark. From motorists, keep their headlights in mind. Every costume should be marked with something white that's easily visible to the driver.

Horoscope

FOR WEDNESDAY

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22) - An ordinary day - but not one that could be termed dull - is followed by an unusual evening. Keep alert to change.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 21) - Increased activity should enable you to settle debts that have been too elusive for you in the past.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 - Jan. 20) - Business and pleasure definitely do not mix today. Choose one or the other early in the day - and keep to it.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19) - Matters that may have a bearing on your employment situation should be avoided at this time. Stick to business.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - March 21) - Live up to the best that is in you and the best should result from your efforts. Don't expect success at once.

ARIES (March 22 - April 20) - Best progress on the present project is made by keeping your nose to the grindstone today. Don't be put off by others.

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21) - The wind Taurus will push business affairs to completion as quickly as possible. Better things lie over the horizon.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21) - Morning hours are somewhat unpropitious but afternoon seems calculated to produce desired results if you work at it.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23) - All you hear today is not necessarily as presented. Take a convincing circumstantial consideration.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23) - Keep to your work schedule and you should be able to complete your assigned task on time. Be ahead of the game by evening.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23) - You should be able to bring about longlasting results in your friendship if you are tactful.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23) - Don't allow another's point of view to influence your manner of working on the present project. Success breeds success.

Dist. 59 Assistant Is Dr. Vlasak Now

More than 460 staff members of District 59 who know Richard Vlasak as their assistant superintendent of education are now calling him "Doctor Vlasak."

Vlasak, 38, completed all requirements for his Ed.D. degree from the University of Illinois in educational administration, and was awarded the degree formally ten days ago.

FOR THE past two years Vlasak has held the post of District 59 position. From 1964-67 he was principal at Chicago's Thorny Elementary School, and during the '63-'64 school year in a program sponsored by National Association of Secondary School Principals.

He has been an educational placement consultant at the University of Illinois, has taught 1st, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th grades, has been a piano teacher and an orchestra leader.

In 1962, Vlasak was awarded a master's degree from DePaul University, in Chicago, in educational administration, and has also completed 24 hours of graduate study in administration.

He received his B.A. from DePaul, where he majored in administrative education, with minors in science and philosophy.

VLASAK, who has served as a district science fair chairman and worked on the University of Illinois administrative Conference Committee, has spent two school years on the Caucus Committee for Prospect Heights School District 23, and has been a member of both High School District 214 Lay Cullen's Committee (1965-66) and the Prospect Heights Improvement Association board of managers.

He and his wife, Mary Lee, and their three children: Kyle, Drew, and Wendy live at 16

S. Maple Ln., Prospect Heights.

DISTRICT 59 schools which Vlasak supervises are Juliette Low in Arlington Heights; John Jay, Dempsey, Holmes, Front, and Forest View Elementary in Mount Prospect; Brentwood, Earlham, Devoe, and High Ridge Elementary in Des Plaines; Oak Ridge, Maple, Grove, Oak Creek, Lively, Clearmont, Hookline, Grant Wood, and Adam, Richard E. Byrd in Elk Grove Village.

Voters Beware!

CHICAGO DAILY NEWS—10/26/68

"BEWARE THE SMEAR ARTISTS"

"...In behalf of Governor Shapiro's candidacy, someone published in the name of an organization called Suburban '68 a tasteless and smearing pamphlet about Richard B. Ogilvie, the Republican candidate for Governor, and his former chief Sheriff's investigator, Richard Cain, that had no proper role in a fair campaign. At the end was printed the logotype of the Daily News, in such a way as to suggest our endorsement of the entire project. This was false and a gross impropriety."

Political machines, sensing defeat, often resort to desperation tactics. Facts are distorted, real issues are obscured, false issues are invented.

Unfortunately, it is happening in Illinois today. A vicious and vulgar attack is being waged against the reputation and integrity of Dick Ogilvie, Republican candidate for Governor.

In the name of decency, we urge you to refute these irresponsible tactics wherever and whenever they appear.

FOR THE RECORD, WE INVITE YOUR ATTENTION TO THE FOLLOWING COMMENTS ABOUT RICHARD B. OGILVIE FROM RESPONSIBLE ORGANIZATIONS THROUGHOUT ILLINOIS.

THE CHICAGO CRIME COMMISSION—8/11/67
"During the four-year term of Sheriff Richard B. Ogilvie, which ended in December 1966, the Sheriff's police force was more effective in suppressing organized gambling and rackets in Cook County than ever before in history."

OGILVIE AN UNTOUCHABLE
On June 25, 1967, the Chicago American ran a front-page article entitled, "Untouchables of the 1960's." The article referred to "four men who have done more than anyone else in the last four decades to break Chicago's distasteful world-wide reputation." The first name listed was Richard B. Ogilvie.

CHICAGO TRIBUNE—9/18/68
I. V. I. ENDORSES OGILVIE—"The Independent Voters of Illinois announced yesterday it will support Richard B. Ogilvie for Governor, marking the first time the group has backed a Republican for the office."

BLOOMINGTON-NORMAL DAILY PANTAGRAPH—10/21/68
"In the balance we find that the need for a change, the fresh Ogilvie approach and his easy air of command all suggest that Richard Ogilvie, Republican, is the man who should be elected governor this fall."

CHICAGO DAILY NEWS—5/15/68

"... His qualifications uniquely match the demands of the Illinois governorship—and they are unique demands ... the governor's job demands character—a special blending of toughness and humanness, integrity as to principle and the knack of political give-and-take so essential to progress in a two-party system. Ogilvie's whole career attests that he is a man of such character."

DANVILLE COMMERCIAL NEWS—10/17/68
Richard Ogilvie would be a fine, effective Governor.

ROCKFORD MORNING STAR—10/24/68
"THE ISSUE. Richard Ogilvie, Republican candidate for Governor, has an outstanding record of accomplishment and deserves to be elected ... he has demonstrated impressive qualities of leadership as an assistant U. S. Attorney, Cook County Sheriff and President of the Cook County Board."

MACOMB JOURNAL—10/68
"Dick Ogilvie makes easy for Western Illinois voters the choice of a governor at the November election. He alone has come out as forcefully as a man could for new road construction in this part of the state."

ST. LOUIS GLOBE-DEMOCRAT—10/27/68

"... Richard Ogilvie has compiled an impressive record of achievements. His platform is solidly supported by excellent performance."

ROCKFORD REGISTER-REPUBLIC—10/23/68
"Richard Ogilvie's solid record of accomplishment makes him our choice for governor of Illinois ... Dick Ogilvie has amassed an impressive record as an assistant U. S. attorney, Sheriff of Cook County and President of the Cook County Board."

ILLINOIS STATE JOURNAL—9/25/68
"OGILVIE FOR GOVERNOR... From 1962 to 1966 he served as Sheriff of Cook County in a period when the pressures on law-enforcement officials in the vast metropolitan area were never greater. Under Dick Ogilvie, law and order did prevail ... As board president, Ogilvie initiated the first major reforms in Cook County government in more than a century ... he indeed a governor for our times."

KANKAKEE DAILY JOURNAL—10/25/68
"OGILVIE FOR GOVERNOR... His crack-down on syndicate crime and vice won approval of Chicago Crime Commission, press and other groups."

Every Woman's Taste?*

Impossible?
Of Course!

We feel the same way about coffee. We don't believe one blend can satisfy every taste.

That's why we have three blends of A&P Bean Coffee. Some like a mild, mellow coffee. That's our Eight O'Clock.

Some like a medium blend that's rich and full-bodied. That's our Red Circle.

Some like a strong blend that's vigorous and winery. That's our Boker.

Each is a blend of the finest coffees of its type.

In fact, there are no finer coffees in any package at any price.

Is A&P Coffee a good reason for shopping A&P? It's one of many.

5 Most Accident-Prone

Corners Where Danger Lurks

BY LOS CZUBAKOWSKI

No time you drive across the intersection of River Rd. and Third Ave. is wasted. You are crossing the most accident-prone corner in the city.

To date, there have been 38 accidents here, 10 of them caused by failure to yield the right of way to someone making a left turn. Several motorists have hit the traffic lights standing on the islands. The pole are knocked down with alarming regularity.

The most fatal most dangerous corner in the city, according to a survey of accidents, are Lee and Oakman, with 27 accidents; Rand and Dempster with 23; River and Oak with 21; and Oak and Third with 16.

At Lee and Oakman, left turns also are the major cause of accidents.

When the city requested separate left turn phasing at this corner recently, the cost of which the city was willing to bear, the following letter was received from the State Division of Highways:

"ENCLOSED is a copy of the summary of the latest traffic study conducted at Lee St. and Oakman St. This summary shows that the highest left turn movement, at 125 vehicles per hour, is for the northbound to westward movement during the hours of 4:15 a.m. to noon.

The first method analyzed involved reserving one lane on each approach exclusively for left turning vehicles and restricting the straight through and right turning traffic to the remaining two lanes. The results of this analysis indicated that the intersection could not handle the existing traffic and unacceptable back-up would result.

The second method investigated involved allocating each approach to turn exclusively in the same compassing traffic. Our analysis of this method showed that the total length of the intersection would be a waste to have a green light which would be a signal that it would be unacceptable to the motorists.

The initiation of left turn phasing at this intersection, in either of the two analysis methods, would be possible because if you did not reserve a lane exclusively for left turning traffic, and shored a left turn, you would have no assurance that the first driver would turn left and if he did not no other vehicle could turn left.

While left turns were the most frequent cause of accidents at the three other previously mentioned corners, too, it is interesting to note that at Oak and Dempster the 22 accidents so far this year were caused by poor driving of the right of way through the long intersection.

Three of the 22 accidents occurred at the intersection and the other two at the intersection and clear is while the light was light.

At Oak and Wolf there was an unusually high percentage of accidents with cars stopped at the corner.

Interestingly, there are traffic lights at all five of these accident prone corners.

Scouts on Survival Hike

Scout Troop 120 and Cub Pack 120, sponsored by Immanuel Lutheran Parent-Teacher League, will host a spaghetti dinner Friday, from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m., at the school, 815 Lee St.

Tickets will be available at the door.

John Nihok, dinner co-ordinator, reports that the mothers will assist Cub Scouts in the cooking of the spaghetti and sauce. The boys will do all other chores.

Cub Pack 120, with 28 members, recently won the National Scoutmaster Award, enabling members of all to dine the award ribbon on their den markers.

Cubmaster Donald Johnson said the Cubs will have a Halloween costume party meeting at the school Oct. 18. Festivities will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Feeling at the foot of the Black Hawk area, during a service campout and 2-mile hike at Camp Leonard, Oregon, Ill., were three members of Troop 2, sponsored by The Danes Club House, St. Louis. They were: Dennis Trenz, Dave Frazier, Dennis Martin, Dave Manning, Andy Kraft, Phil Rios, Jim Mastell, and Steve Schellman. Staying in tents at the camp, the boys had a temporary campsite of three tents and the night before. After the hike about 10 miles, the boys had the best tent camp and constructed three tents for the Sunday night. Sunday the boys were back into the woods to gather edible plants for their Sunday lunch. All boys received their Black Hawk patches and medals.

Trustees Say 'Yes' 4 times, 'No' Once

Kaplan and Braun-Developers may build seven houses at the southwest corner of Lincoln and Meyer Rds., Mount Prospect, the Judiciary committee decided in a meeting last week.

Also at the meeting, the committee voted to give two zoning variances allowing business offices to be built in residential areas.

The three cases at Lincoln and Meyer had been denied for over seven months.

Dr. C.E. Mazelski, 325 W. Prospect, Mount Prospect, was given a variance to let him build a one-story professional office building at the southwest corner of Pine and Prospect, a residential area. Metekel will use the building for his practice, according to Earl Lewis, chairman of the committee.

Another variance was approved to allow Donald F. Roth, 803 W. Randall, Mount Prospect, to construct a professional office building in a residential area. It is to be named to Mount Prospect.

Roth, a public accountant, wants to build a 100,000 sq. ft. building on W. Randall near W. Lewis said.

In other business, the committee voted to allow Randall Buckmaster, 320 N. Wilm. Mount Prospect, to build a garage 10 feet closer to his side lot line than village regulations permit.

The committee refused to give Stanley Anderson, manager of Garden Specimens a store front building at the southwest corner of Lincoln and Meyer Rds., Mount Prospect, the Judiciary committee decided in a meeting last week.

Also at the meeting, the committee voted to give two zoning variances allowing business offices to be built in residential areas.

The three cases at Lincoln and Meyer had been denied for over seven months.

Dr. C.E. Mazelski, 325 W. Prospect, Mount Prospect, was given a variance to let him build a one-story professional office building at the southwest corner of Pine and Prospect, a residential area. Metekel will use the building for his practice, according to Earl Lewis, chairman of the committee.

Another variance was approved to allow Donald F. Roth, 803 W. Randall, Mount Prospect, to construct a professional office building in a residential area. It is to be named to Mount Prospect.

Roth, a public accountant, wants to build a 100,000 sq. ft. building on W. Randall near W. Lewis said.

In other business, the committee voted to allow Randall Buckmaster, 320 N. Wilm. Mount Prospect, to build a garage 10 feet closer to his side lot line than village regulations permit.

The committee refused to give Stanley Anderson, manager

Backlash, Militancy Both Must Yield, Minister Insists

BY HARRY FERNANDEZ

A Chicago minister said he would not survive if he did not yield to the militant church in the struggle for the temple of violence.

"People have two choices," said the Rev. John H. Johnson, pastor of the Westside Medical Center in Chicago. "They can solve their grievances through our penitentiary system, or they can resort to violence."

Holmes said America is now polarized between the black militant and the white bourgeois. "I don't think we can consider as a nation that is polarized like this," he said.

absolutely necessary for our survival that we find a coalition between them and we're simply going to survive as a nation."

Holmes said Protestant theologian Reinhold Niebuhr, in a book written 30 years ago, outlines the two basic approaches people take when they are in a moral dilemma. "They either seek help from the outside, or they resort to violence," he said.

The situation created by the ghetto affords people these two choices, Holmes said, but today's violence is "temporary violence."

It may work, but I doubt if the American Negro can pull off a full-scale revolution," he said in part.

Thus, Holmes said, the solution lies in parliamentary procedure. The two polarizations that exist today—Negro militants and white bourgeois—must be reconciled.

"For years we had a black community characterized by Uncle Tomism. Now we have a black community characterized by the other extreme. The hope is that we can come out in between."

He said the solution in the big cities may come when politicians realize they are dealing with a large block of Negro votes.

THE BIG CITY politicians must learn the fact that they are dealing with a large Negro block that is growing and that he can't control it. He must learn that these people can only be controlled by the politicians forming a coalition between the two groups.

He said that "when this black militant group enough and a half is created in Chicago, (Mayor Richard) Daley will know that he is in this coalition to clean up the city."

The leadership for a large Negro bloc "is being trained now," he said. "I see them all the time. They are the second generation of the Black Power movement and they are not as willing to kill as the others. They are still being trained by the militant group."

Holmes said the militant group is usually stimulated by money. "For instance, the Supreme Court said it would give the militant group $10 million to build a school."

He said that "if it allows 10 percent of the money to go to the Negro. The people would probably buy the school and could control the number of Negroes and get the money for their school."

LAWRENCE JENNINGS, 288 Golfview, Mount

Wright, principal of Forest View High School of Forest View, said that he would not want to see the militant group take over the school.

"If the state said they'd give $10 million to build a school, I would not want to see the militant group take over the school," he said.

Schools Laid Fiscal Knife To Keep Within the Budget

By Dan Jones
Services to children attending 19 schools will be cut immediately by District 39 as a means to find $180,000 it needs to stay within its budget.
"But our basic education program hasn't changed one bit," said Leonard G. Canine, director of operational services for the district. "There are no new services, just a few adjustments and the amount District 39 expects to receive from the state is being cut by $180,000." Canine said that the cuts were outlined today by Bill E. Lankensau, district superintendent. Lankensau said that the cuts would be made in the following areas:
• Reducing the number of administrative staffs.

Safety Is a Treat, Not Trick

Trick-or-treat is the word for tonight. So is safety. To help assure a safe Halloween for children, area fire departments have suggested the following precautions:
• Never use candles in trick-or-treat bags.

Prospect High Won't Follow Forest View's Smoking Lead

BY MERRILL SANDERS

Students will not be allowed to smoke on the grounds at Prospect High School. The smoking policies of other district 214 high schools will not be changed in the immediate future, but principals are studying the situation. The student smoking question arose Monday when the District 214 board decided to give principals the right to establish smoking areas for students on the school grounds. The board's decision was made after Lawrence Jennings principal of Forest View High, said he did not want to make the northeast corner of Forest View a student smoking area. He explained that the students were coming to the west side of the school, to the west side of the school, to the west side of the school, to the west side of the school.

Wheeling GOP Give $1,000 to Opportunity Center

The Northwest Opportunity Center of Rolling Meadows recently received a $1,000 check from Rep. Eugene P. Schickman on behalf of the Wheeling Township Republican organization. The donation came from the $10,000 net proceeds of the Wheeling GOP dinner.

It filled a promise made before the Oct. 2 dance by Schickman, a Wheeling GOP committeeman. He said $1,000 if the revenue would go to the opportunity center, which assists low-income families in the northwest suburbs.

THE CHECK was presented at a luncheon in the Cavalier Restaurant at which Schickman made it clear more donations will be coming on our part," he said. "We have an interest in how the money is spent and will look forward to receiving reports from the center."

Rep. Eugene P. Schickman (over) (R-Arlington Heights) delivers a $1,000 check to Mrs. Charles Malabro, executive director of the Northwest Opportunity Center of Rolling Meadows. Mrs. Charles Malabro, Wheeling Township Republican committeewoman of Wheeling Village books on.

The check to the opportunity center was accepted by Don Madonaco, executive director, who said there are now 500 to 700 families in the northwest suburbs with annual incomes of less than $10,000. Most of the families are of Latin American origin but 75 per cent are American citizens, he said.

"THE OTHER 25 per cent would like to be American citizens," Madonaco said. They have come to this area mostly from Mexico. They work at agricultural and landscaping jobs.

"These families are looking for a better opportunity, a better job and better income. These people are not begging. They deserve help, and that is what the Northwest Opportunity Center was organized to do."

REV. DELMAR DENNIS To Talk About KKK

The Rev. Delmar Dennis, an FBI witness in the trial of the Ku Klux Klan members convicted in the lynching of these civil rights workers in Memphis, will describe his experience Nov. 8 in Nine.

He will speak on the topic "I was inside the KKK for the FBI" at 8 p.m. at the Banker Hill Country Club, 6637 Milwaukee.

His talk is being sponsored by the Truth About Civil Turmoil (TACT).

214 Board Okays Planning For Area Vocational Training

Planning for an area vocational education center was approved at a meeting of the District 214 school board last night.

The board will ask for state funds to hire a director and would plan courses and facilities for the center. The proposed vocational education center would serve District 214, Main Township, District 207 and Palatine District 211, according to Edward Gilbert, District 214 superintendent.

Parsons interested in becoming a resident of District 214 in the way may wait up to 15 days after the school year starts before moving. Temporary accommodations, the board decided.

Persons claiming residency in the district under these rules who do not leave their old homes within the time limit will be charged tuition extra time.

From the beginning of the school year.

The definition of "resident" accepted by the board was made retroactive to the first day of the school year.

Frost PTA Book Fair Nov. 7-9

Robert Frost Elementary School PTA will hold their book fair at the school, 1508 Cypress Dr., Mount Prospect, Nov. 7, 8 and 9.

Books will range from paperbacks to hardbacks, priced from 19 cents to $10. Science models and educational games will be included. Fairlane's Library Division, is the publisher.

The children at Robert Frost are enthusiastically competing in a poster contest for the fair. Prizes will be awarded for the best poster in each classroom.

Chinese Auction Feature Of ORT Benefit

There is a chance for real give away bargains at the Chinese Auction and Dinner, Saturday, Nov. 9, sponsored by the Far Acres Chapter of Women's American ORT at the Rose Room, 100 Dundas Rd., Buffalo Grove. Cocktails and a multi-course Polynesian dinner will be served at 7:30 p.m., followed by the auction. Emil Luster, a professional auctioneer, will be selling high vocally wrapped blind items, marked only with their retail prices. He will auction these off according to his whim and educated by stopping the bidding on an article at any time. As an item may be sold for as little as 10 percent but nothing will go for more than its value.

EXPENSIVE or sized merchandise, such as clothing, can be inspected before the bidding begins. "All items have been carefully chosen and are interesting or genuinely useful," states Mrs. Leon Reichel, special program chairman. Even the door and raffle prizes are grandiose, including an authentic child size organ.

Proceeds of the auction will benefit Organization for Rehabilitation Through Training's health program, which provides medical, rehabilitative, dental care, attention to mental and the handicapped in ORT's facilities throughout the world.

Tickets are available from Mrs. Norman J. Katz, 1622 Woodland Lane, Wheeling, or Mrs. Lora Russell, 191 W. Elder, Buffalo Grove. The donation is $10 per couple.

"ORT (Organization for Rehabilitation Through Training) comes close to being a charity to send all charities by helping others to help themselves," said Mrs. Melvyn Klein of Buffalo Grove at the recent induction of Far Acres Chapter of ORT.

Attempting the salute one of chequers is Mrs. Leon Reichel, Wheeling, Mrs. Norman J. Katz, Buffalo Grove, special program chairman, and Mrs. Melvyn Klein, president of Far Acres ORT who will sponsor a Chinese dinner and auction, 7:30 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 9 at the Rose Room, 100 Dundas Rd., Buffalo Grove. Proceeds will benefit the organization's health program and facilities for the handicapped.

ORT is a program for rebuilding lives through vocational education, in central countries in the least aided by being helped to become independent, self-supporting and self-respecting. ORT is the world's largest non-governmental vocational training agency.

Its students include the poverty-stricken inhabitants of underdeveloped countries, refugees and immigrants seeking a new life, and youngsters trying to build secure futures.

How to Make Meat Loaf Elegant

By Charlotte Erickson

With a little imagination meat loaf can be made into an elegant meal for the family or for company. Always popular with the budget-conscious cook, it's considered how we can elevate the meat loaf to the status it deserves.

SHAPING THE MEAT Loaves may be made in a ring mold. Or a ring mold generally and shape the meat into a lightly, but solidly. If you are going to make several for freezing, unroll the loaf on a plastic sheet and freeze.

When frozen, place in plastic bags, label, date and return to the freezer. It is best to store them in some sort of a protective container, such as a heavy cake box. Several may be frozen in one large box, one on top of the other.

For the small household, mold meat loaves in individual loaves, using casseroles.

Unroll on a lined cookie sheet before freezing and follow the same procedure. Also, the small loaf pans are ideal for the small household.

TO SERVE WHEN FROZEN The ring mold may be put on an oven-toaster plate and baked. Fill the center with green cooked vegetables or mashed potatoes, garnish with parsley and carrots.

When using mashed potatoes, dot with butter and insert under the broiler for just a few minutes, letting the potatoes brown just a trifle. Serve in this manner, the meat loaf really takes on a regal air.

Buy your meat in quantity when it's on sale, enough for at least three meals. Make sure the meat is fresh and of good quality. Be sure to marinate and freeze the same day it is purchased.

ITALIAN FLAVORED MEAT LOAF

These are probably as many different recipes for meat loaf as there are cooks making them. Here's one that has a new twist to it.

Single recipe:
Yield: 4 servings
1 1/2 cups ground beef
1 egg
1 cup bread crumbs
1 can condensed tomato soup
1 envelope dry spaghetti
meat mix
1/2 cup frozen chopped onion
1 cup frozen chopped green pepper
2 envelopes salt
pepper to taste

Triple recipe:
Yield: 12 servings
4 pounds ground beef
2 eggs
2 cups bread crumbs
2 cans condensed tomato soup

3 envelopes dry spaghetti

meat mix
1 1/2 cups frozen chopped onion
1 cup frozen chopped green pepper
2 envelopes salt
pepper to taste

Mix all the ingredients thoroughly. The quickest way to do this is with your electric mixer. Shape into whatever size loaves you prefer. Make enough meat loaf for your dinner and freeze the remainder.

Bake a meat loaf from a single recipe in 350 degree F oven for about one hour. Smaller loaves will take less time. About half way through the baking time, pour any remaining tomato soup or sauce over the meat loaf and return to oven.

If you don't have an electric knife, let meat set for about 10 minutes before slicing for even and more attractive slices.

Chivalry? What's That?

BY MARY BRUCE

In the age of chivalry dead? In our modern times of traveling fathers with mother the mistress of the home and family during the week, I sometimes wonder. Will the day be coming when the lady will ask "Chivalry? What's that?"

I do know that some of the men are giving it some thought, too, because last night when my husband and I were out with friends, I had to keep climbing back into the car and shut the door and open the door for me! With the short, tight skirts of today, it was very awkward to say the least.

MY FRIEND also had her problems with her better half, especially about lighting her cigarettes. It seems that way back when men and women were always had trouble with her lighters, the delicate sort you know.

Well, you can understand the irony of all this when we historically collapsed on a chair in the powder room, because she's known as Topsy (Topsy is her name), and I'm known as Strong Arm. Well, of the day's modern men. Now I like a man to take a firm stand, but his consistency of these things drive me crazy.

HERE ARE a few more instances. While my better half is traveling I can wash the clothes, scrub the floor, wash and polish the car, the two kids and a dog, but on his return I can't be trusted to climb the lawn.

During the week I can climb the ladder to do the windows, clean the leaves from the gutters, retrieve lost balls from the roof, but on his return, little old me isn't steady enough on a ladder with three steps to hang a picture.

On the weekends I can make the potato salad, fix the corn and barbecue sauce, set the table, prepare the grill and start the fire, but I cannot be trusted to fix the toilet or burn the smoky property.

DURING the week I can paint a room, refinish furniture, sand floors and repair any number of household articles, but I cannot be trusted to paint the trim on the model airplane.

I can drive the kids to the doctor, or school, do the shopping, go to the bank during the hour, but, I am not capable of driving the family to church and back on Sunday.

Now the newest complaint is that we women are getting too independent. Like a lot of women I've been conditioned through years to believe that women are to blame for what is going on in our world so I try any method of improvement. So I have little signs posted all over the house in conspicuous spots, which make sense only to me.

The sign on the refrigerator says, "Don't open door on windows!" The one by the phone says, "Don't give your order to her even if she is talking to you." The sign on the garbage bucket says, "Remember to let him carry the groceries next time."

YESTERDAY I was putting the theory into practice as I stood with patient determination in front of the door at the drug store.

"Mother, what are you waiting for?" asked my teenage daughter.

"For your father to open that door for me, I'm going to prove to you that chivalry is not dead."

"Chivalry? What's that?" "Go look it up in the dictionary."

"How can I, I don't even know how to spell it!"

See what I mean? Look what is happening to our younger generation. What's that? You say? Oh, for heaven's sake, go look it up your Post & Wagtail. It's spelled chivalry, I think.

Nurses Club To Greet New Members

The Arlington Heights Nurses Club will hold its annual coffee for new and prospective members Tuesday, Nov. 12 at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Richard Freyerm, 823 N. Val. All registered or formerly registered nurses residing or working in the Arlington Heights area are invited to attend.

Celebrating its 30th anniversary this year, the organization was started in 1938 by a group of nurses who wished to meet socially, to keep up-to-date with their nursing profession and contribute service to the community. The first of its kind to be chartered in the state of Illinois, the club now has a membership of over 100.

Other areas in the northwest suburbs also have formed Nurses Clubs and meet their times monthly for a "Roundtable."

program and exchange of ideas.

MEMBERS of the Arlington Heights group meet together to supply the financial support for the "Lending Closet," a somewhat unique enterprise which provides schoolroom equipment for local residents, and the Martha Jackson Nursing Scholarship which are awarded annually to prospective nursing students.

The home also serves the mobile TB X-ray units, the diabetes program at Northwestern Community Hospital and will staff the community booth at the Girl Scout Jamboree Nov. 2 at Randolph Shopping Center.

MEETINGS are held the fourth Thursday of each month in the conference room of Northwest Community Hospital at 8 p.m.

Freeze-Dried Coffee In a Cake

Those peculiar looking chunks of dry Maxim freeze-dried coffee can be used for more than just a cup of instant coffee. Try mixing them in a coffee cake loaf. All you will need is a package of freeze-dried Maxim's and:

- 2 1/2 cups brown sugar
- 2 1/2 cups butter
- 1 instant coffee ice cream
- 1 1/2 cups sifted flour
- 1 1/2 cups Maxim's

Directions: Mix as directed on the package and spoon evenly into a well-greased 10-inch loaf mold.

over cake batter. Pour coffee over all. Bake in moderate (350 degree) oven 50 to 60 minutes. Invert at once on a large platter; preferably one with a "well" to receive sauce that forms during baking.

When MAXIM coffee cake is ready to serve, fill coffee with coffee ice cream. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

For a tasty variation use coffee whipped cream filling as a center.

COFFEE WHIPPED CREAM FILLING
1 teaspoon softened butter
2 tablespoons Maple

Combine brown sugar, butter and cocoa. Sprinkle

DON RUMSFELD A PROVEN LEADER WITH THE STATURE TO REPRESENT YOU EFFECTIVELY IN CONGRESS.

He creates legislation and leads with ideas that make sense.

Recognizing that new national priorities are needed, Rumsfeld co-sponsored the "Human Renewal Fund," a proposal to reduce the Budget in lower priority items and to add funds to meet urgent human needs in the areas of education, housing, and urban problems.

His key amendment establishing an "Aerospace Safety Advisory Panel" within NASA, which became law in 1967, is directed toward preventing aerospace accidents such as the tragic Apollo 204 fire. Although deeply committed to continued space achievement, he was a leader in the successful effort to reduce non-essential space programs, so that funds could be diverted to higher priority programs designed to meet unfulfilled human needs.

Don Rumsfeld was one of the key leaders behind the "FREEDOM OF INFORMATION" bill, which gives statutory authority to the citizen's right to know what's going on in government. Since its passage, he has personally undertaken constant scrutiny of the information policies of government agencies and has insisted upon compliance with the law.

Other legislation introduced by Rumsfeld includes 1) draft reform 2) modernization of the postal system 3) bills to meet air and water pollution problems, and 4) Congressional Reform and Ethics.

"Don Rumsfeld is one of the bright young men who have injected new vitality into the Republican Party and have made it a party of problem-solvers. Not only is he intelligent, intelligent, and resourceful, but he possesses and repeatedly demonstrates the political courage to follow through on his ideas." Gerald Ford, Minority Leader, House of Representatives

"Rumsfeld has remarkable qualifications, both in his relationship within the district and in his activities on the Washington scene." The Arlington Day—February 8, 1968

He makes sense as he performs tasks of ever-growing responsibility and importance.

As a member of the JOINT (House-Senate) ECONOMIC COMMITTEE, Don Rumsfeld serves on the Subcommittees on Economy in Government, Fiscal Policy, Foreign Economic Policy, and Inter-American Economic Relationships. He also serves as an active member of the G.O.P. Task Force on Urban Affairs.

On the HOUSE COMMITTEE ON GOVERNMENT OPERATIONS, which has "watch dog" jurisdiction over all activities of the Federal Government, Rep. Rumsfeld serves as an influential force on the Subcommittee on Foreign Operations and Government Information, and on the Subcommittee on Military Operations.

He is a respected member of the HOUSE COMMITTEE ON SCIENCE AND ASTRONAUTICS, and serves on the Subcommittees on Manned Space Flight, and on Science, Research and Development.

"In combating secrecy in government, Rumsfeld champions not only the rights and interests of his 13th Congressional District constituents, but of all other Americans as well. The entire nation owes him a debt of gratitude." Paddock Publication—January 5, 1968

"Cong. Rumsfeld has our strong endorsement for re-election because of the excellent job he has done in representing this district and the country. He has worked diligently to make the federal government more responsive to the people, to curb federal spending excesses, to improve human conditions, and to enlist the private sector in helping to attack the nation's ills." Hollister Pubs., October 21, 1968

TIME MAGAZINE ranked Don Rumsfeld together with Senators Brooke, Hatfield, and Percy, and Texas Congressman Bush among the growing phalanx of "new breed" Republicans who are reaching for answers to the questions that many are ill too willing to ignore. August 9, 1968

He gets the facts firsthand—and makes sense out of them.

Don Rumsfeld went to Vietnam in 1966 as a member of a Congressional team investigating the effectiveness of our military and economic aid programs. In the resulting committee report, he warned that even if the U. S. attained the military success incorrectly predicted by the Administration at that time, this gain would be only temporary in the absence of "considerably greater progress in the non-military aspects of the problems in South Vietnam." In retrospect, his warning has been acknowledged as all too tragically prophetic.

In 1967, Rumsfeld, and other members of Congress from both parties, introduced a resolution calling for a full Congressional review of U. S. policies in Southeast Asia.

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon invited Congressman Rumsfeld to serve as one of three assistant Floor Leaders at the 1968 Republican National Convention. Also, Mr. Nixon appointed Congressman Rumsfeld, Senator Hatfield (R-Ore.), and Senator Baker (R-Tenn.) to serve in a group of ten "Surrogate Candidates" authorized to speak in his behalf during the 1968 election campaign. Congressman Rumsfeld, one of the youngest Congressmen ever to serve on the House Republican Policy Committee, has traveled to all corners of the nation as a "new breed" spokesman for the Republican Party.

"Recommended as outstanding." Better Government Association—September 19, 1968

"... we recommend a vote of confidence for Rumsfeld on the basis of his fine performance." Chicago Daily News—October 15, 1968

"Since he was first elected to Congress six years ago, Rumsfeld, 36, has been consistently vigorous, conscientious, and bright... Rumsfeld is in tune with the younger generation, one of the new breed of Republicans." Chicago Sun-Times—October 14, 1968

RE-ELECT RUMSFELD

TO CONGRESS • VOTE REPUBLICAN NOV. 5TH
The Rumsfeld Committee, Donald S. Lowitz, Manager

He keeps in remarkably close touch with his District.

Don Rumsfeld practices his conviction that, for representative government to work effectively, there must be a continuous two-way flow of information and opinion between Washington, D. C., and you in the 13th District.

He actively seeks opinions on a wide scale, through the now-famous "National Issues Poll." This Poll samples public opinion on both domestic and foreign issues from residents of the 13th District.

Through his regular RUMSFELD REPORTS newsletters to 13th District residents, comprehensive LEGISLATIVE REPORTS, and tabulations of his voting record, Rep. Rumsfeld keeps you informed, on his work and the work of Congress. You know where he stands.

Born and raised in the 13th District, Congressman Rumsfeld graduated from Princeton University. Before his election to the U.S. Congress in 1962, he was an investment broker, served on the staffs of two Republican Congressmen in Washington, D.C., and was a Navy pilot and flight instructor for over 2 years. Donald Rumsfeld and his wife Joyce have two daughters, Mary and Valerie, and a son Nicholas.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO HELP? Government is everybody's business. Campaigning today is necessary but costly. If you would like to help with Don's campaign, please send a dollar to: "The Rumsfeld Committee," 40231 Harwood St., Skokie, Ill. 60076

Bad Luck, Injuries Continue To Plague Powerful Huskies For Elk Grove Encounter

BY LINDA GAMMEL
Sports Editor

Henry's string of bad luck and injuries continued last week as reserve fullback Bob Walker pulled a muscle and sustained a bruise on his hip in practice Wednesday.

Concluded with that came the starting case point out. Coach Len Bart had hoped to start the speedster halfback either this week against Elk Grove or next against Arlington, but those hopes have been dashed.

HOWEVER, HERSEY can still come up with a wealth of good players, and for this week at least, the starting offensive unit will look the same as it has for a few weeks now.

But the bad job we not overlooking tonight's Elk Grove encounter in favor of meeting Arlington next week.

"Elk Grove does enough things that we have to respect them too," said Bart. About a month ago, their coach (Rich Rader) told me that to be very impressed with his own team," said the Huskies coach. "That's quite a commendation."

"WE EXPECT TO pass a little more than we have," said Bart. "So far we have had nine touchdowns passed, and that's not bad for a running club."

But and his job we not overlooking tonight's Elk Grove encounter in favor of meeting Arlington next week.

"Elk Grove does enough things that we have to respect them too," said Bart. About a month ago, their coach (Rich Rader) told me that to be very impressed with his own team," said the Huskies coach. "That's quite a commendation."

on another high-scoring outcome such as the 46-0 last week the Huskies gave Palestine last week. "Elk Grove has been scored on and they have scored. In both cases the score has been pretty good," Bart said.

BUT ELK Grove's squad isn't all that bad. "We beat Westview by a couple of points last week," said Green.

Rader expects to continue with training tactics this week. "Our passing leaves a lot to be desired," he said. The Grassroots will put up a slightly smaller team than last week. "To keep the score down."

"He'll beat us fair and square. If he beats us, they've been beating everybody by 40-plus points. If we can keep them in the 30's or less, we'll give 'em a good go," said Rader.

JOE SMITH will quarterback the club and will send off to John Spier, Jeff Prossband and Kevin Byrne, the fullback.

BADER CONSIDERS that Henry will probably win, but "if they should have a bad night, somebody is going to get a new win."

Hopeful of being that "somebody," Rader said, "He's going to see a defense he's never seen before."

Hawks Finish 8th Of 16 Teams

Harper College's varsity golf team helped make up for a bad bowing in the dual season by finishing in eighth place in the overall team standings for the 16 team Northern Illinois Junior College Conference.

The Hawks made up for a 2-17 dual record as coach Bill Miller's charges took seventh in the conference, most last weekend with a total score of 246 for the 18-hole match played at the Knoxville Golf Club in Homewood.

The Hawks finished behind Rock Valley, Thornton, the College of DuPage, Joliet, Elgin, and Illinois Valley College in the meet.

Frederick star Pete Hahn was the Hawks' top performer with an 82. Hahn has been the team's most consistent performer all season. Steve Winkler and Rick Johnson also shot in the 80's as Winkler carded an 85 and Johnson an 87.

Craig Saar and Bob Rodgers rounded out the Hawk lineup at four shot at 90 and Rodgers a 91. According to Miller, "There was a good job, better than we expected for a big meet like this. Hahn did well. I expect we are as good as in the regional." The regional will be played at Danville this week.

Instant History From Your TV

Want to record instant history and improve your friends. One way to do it is by taking pictures off your television screen. It can be fun and is relatively easy according to Day Photographer Roger Dea, who took the pictures on this page. He notes that the Lee Oswald assassination was taken live off television and printed in some newspapers before on-location photographers got their film back to their office. Here's how to do it: Set your camera on a tripod close enough to the screen to get close-up pictures. Turn off room lights and prevent glancing light from nearby windows from hitting the screen. Set your focus at 16 and the shutter speed between 30 and 125. Turn down the television contrast. Use tri-X film. Then it's a snap-of the shutter.

Have a Careless Room

And now - the "careless room." Perhaps you've known it under other names: rummage room, play room, recreation room. Whatever your pet name for it, it's the area where you prefer to lounge, relax, play games or curl up with a book. Listen to music, watch TV. Above all, it's the corner of the house which you don't want to bother with, worry about, have to keep tidied. Plan the "careless room" that way, then. Underfoot see "careless room."

Greenbrier Now Leasing

Greenbrier, a 156-apartment community in Arlington Heights, has opened its leasing program with a showing of 150 furnished model apartments.

One building has been completely rented and a second building will be ready for occupancy on Dec. 15. Leases are now being taken for the period from Dec. 15 through May 1969 on 125 units.

The 16-unit already leased are occupied, and approximately 25 per cent of future units have been reserved.

The apartment development, designed and built by Miller Builders, Inc., has one- and two-bedroom units in other garden apartment or elevator serviced buildings. Monthly rentals are $190 for one-bedroom apartments and $235 for two-bedrooms.

The apartments are in eight two-story buildings and one four-story elevator building, with French Provincial exterior roof lines and an antique copper finish trim. Both adult and child's swimming pools are featured, and families with two cars will find ample parking plus guest space.

Eighty per cent of the total land area is devoted to landscaped park area, recreation and parking.

In the two-bedroom apartments, the master suite features a double bed walk-in closet, a separate dressing area, and a private powder room. A large family bath serves the second bedroom. A full bathroom from the formal entrance foyer to the rear of the unit is a 12-linear-foot closet for additional hanging room and storage.

Each apartment has an individually controlled year-round heating and air-conditioning and wall-to-wall carpeting. Checkers are standard equipment in the kitchen and both wall and floor surfaces in the baths are ceramic tile. Efficient laundry facilities are located in each building.

A Park-It-Market convenience store is planned immediately adjoining the Greenbrier entrance. The Northbrook shopping center is a few blocks away, and Greenbrier is conveniently a few minutes drive from the giant Randhurst shopping center.

THE DEVELOPMENT is also close to the many educational, recreational and religious facilities of Arlington Heights. The development is located one block from the Greenbrier elementary school, park and playground.

Old Orchard, Rob Roy and Rolling Green golf courses are all convenient. The community is serviced by the Chicago & North Western commuter train, and Tri-State and the Northwest Tollways offer express mass transportation to the Loop.

The Greenbrier apartments immediately adjoin the 500-home Greenbrier subdivision by Miller Builders, Inc., completed last year.

Three Steps to Cutting Fuel Cost

Countdown on winter weather in the offing outside every homeowner that bigger fuel bills are also on their way.

The count of three will help you reduce the annual cost of keeping warm during the cold days ahead.

First, check out your basement insulation, especially the ceiling. Perhaps your basement is not heated. Run on your living room floors will protect them from that cold, moist air, and provide much quiet traffic.

Second, avoid sudden temperature changes each time the furnace starts up. Turn down fan for most running most of the time. One electrical adjustment does it.

Third, use a controlled humidifier to get the extra moisture into the air. The dry air which pulls moisture out of the wood in the doors and window frames lets cold air into the house through such cracks.

Too much humidity can be as much a plague and cause window moisture, damage the paint or wet insulated areas.

Bell President Analyzes Market

New housing units in the Chicago metropolitan area are expected to total 54,000 in 1968 making this the highest year to the post-war period," according to B. J. M. Ransom, president of Bell Savings and Loan Assn.

The Chicago area's best housing year was 1957 when 52,670 units were reported. Permits have been issued for 52,837 units in the first eight months of 1968. The last four months used only 197 of the 1967 volume of 18,597 for the same period. The 1968 volume is expected to reach 54,000, Ransom said.

Total housing units in the first eight months of 1968 are running 25 per cent ahead of the same period for 1967 and have exceeded last year's volume each month.

The demand for new homes, apartments and condominiums is stronger now than it has been for many years," stated Ransom.

"Vacancy rates in the Chicago area are at the lowest level since 1939, reflecting the present shortage of housing in the six-county area."

"Permits for both homes and apartments have been rising steadily over the past two years, due in part to a recovery from the slump suffered in 1965," he added.

"CHICAGO WAS the best housing market in the United States in 1967 and represents 3.6 per cent of the total United States market," Ransom said.

lowed level in 17 years. In the mid-50s, the Chicago area economy began a period of rapid expansion, creating a demand for labor and housing. The swift upsurge in the labor force created new housing needs and fewer second hand homes.

"Because of this rapid expansion," said Ransom, "total building reached an all-time high in 1965."

In 1966 the construction boom was interrupted by the tight money situation," he continued. "We were faced with rising rates and declining demand for new housing."

"The demand for mortgage funds fell on the savings and loan industry due to the absence of banks and insurance companies from the mortgage market, and the supply of savings funds were not ample to meet the demand."

WITH THE resurgence of construction in 1967, it became the best housing year since 1955. Apartments established a new post-war record, while homes were at the highest level since 1962.

"Going into 1968, we were again faced with rising interest rates," said Ransom.

"However, this time the lending industry had prepared itself to prevent another period like we had in 1966."

And as we have witnessed, housing has not been materially affected by the higher rates in 1968."

"Looking at the past it is truly amazing how rapidly the Chicago area housing market has changed during less time than the post-war boom," Ransom said.

"Fourteen years ago only one out of every ten new housing units built in the area was an apartment, while now more than half of total housing units are apartments."

Ransom stated that an increasing number of young couples in the 20-34 age group have helped stimulate apartment construction.

"THIS GROUP traditionally rents before buying, and rising prices have removed new homes from their immediate reach. Also, increasing wages and salaries have not kept pace with spiraling building costs."

The continuing increase in this age group will continue to support the demand for apartments, he added.

"Construction of single-family homes has also risen steadily for the past two years," continued Ransom, "and is at the highest level now since 1961. There is a trend toward larger homes in the Chicago metropolitan area, and the average value of a single-family home permit in the six-county area has risen more than construction costs during the post-war period."

"Cheaper home buyer at the time and larger families have been the principal causes of the demand for larger homes. As long as the employment rate continues in high level, and the general economy remains strong people will buy new homes."

Ransom said economists are predicting a general slowdown in the economy in 1969 which would have a tendency to slow down the rate of construction. Also, the 1967 and 1968 building boom was a large part of a recovery from the 1966 light-money situation which ample funds were not available.

Even though the outlook for new housing looks strong for the remainder of 1968 and into 1969, it does not seem likely that the rapid growth rate of 25 per cent which we have experienced for almost two years can be maintained."

Fruit Trees Offer Color, Shade and Tasty Eating

Every home should be attractive as much of the year as possible. This is why two-tone plants are so popular. They form interesting plantings to either sun or shade.

Dwarf fruit trees, however, surpass the two-tone approach to colorfulness. They provide flowers during spring, shade in summer, full fruit color in autumn and food for using throughout winter.

However, this food for winter is not automatic. It must be carefully cultivated. The tree finished fruit that is available all the time of the day is one of the miracles of modern agriculture.

APPLES and other fruit during colorful days do not require the special care of today's orchards. As a result it was often sunny, moist and miniphan, so much of the fruit went into other production.

For perfect finished fruit, commercial growers spray at least 13 times a season. While time for an indoor spray this often, it does indicate the need for the aspect of care.

If on the other hand, home fruit trees are not sprayed, disease and insects may greatly reduce the size and quality of the yield.

Trees may be completely barren for a number of years. Winter kill of the buds in one of the big causes of fruit failure. In fact, flower buds of peaches and sweet cherry will not survive if their planting is not well-timed.

Some gardeners are too impatient for fruit. From the time trees are set out, it takes four to seven years to produce apples. Sour cherries take four to five years and pears and plums, four to six years to start bearing.

Sometimes even pollination is necessary for fruit production. For example, it is necessary to plant two or more varieties of plums or pears. However, the so-called Bartlett varieties of plums will not pollinate each other.

Apples have their own pollinating requirements, too. Although golden delicious will pollinate itself, it is a good idea with other varieties to use two or more varieties.

Four pollination-proof varieties are: Golden Delicious, Red Delicious and Greening. They pollinate themselves and need no other variety to produce a crop.

Some fruit varieties of apples are grafted to grow dwarf trees. The cross-pollination is supposed to make a super crop. In actual practice it doesn't work this way; usually one or two varieties dominate and the weaker branch-producing varieties soon die out.

Some fruit varieties of apples are grafted to grow dwarf trees. The cross-pollination is supposed to make a super crop. In actual practice it doesn't work this way; usually one or two varieties dominate and the weaker branch-producing varieties soon die out.

Some gardeners are too impatient for fruit. From the time trees are set out, it takes four to seven years to produce apples. Sour cherries take four to five years and pears and plums, four to six years to start bearing.

Sometimes even pollination is necessary for fruit production. For example, it is necessary to plant two or more varieties of plums or pears. However, the so-called Bartlett varieties of plums will not pollinate each other.

Apples have their own pollinating requirements, too. Although golden delicious will pollinate itself, it is a good idea with other varieties to use two or more varieties.

Four pollination-proof varieties are: Golden Delicious, Red Delicious and Greening. They pollinate themselves and need no other variety to produce a crop.

Arlington Heights Beautification Council To Give Certificates for Landscaping

By Elizabeth Lacey

The Arlington Heights Beautification Council will present certificates of appreciation to buildings which have been beautifully landscaped and maintained. AKB President Gilbert H. Krohn reports.

The certificate will be presented to the following: Arlington Heights Federal Savings and Loan Association, 215 Campbell, Arlington Heights, 948 S. Northwestern Highway. The Bennett Building, 800 N. Western Highway. The Northwestern Mutual Insurance Company of Chicago, 11200 N. Arlington

Highway Rd. Krohn emphasizes that these buildings are beautifully maintained as well as landscaped. The grounds are consistently weeded and trees are properly trimmed. Krohn hopes that these certificates of appreciation will stimulate interest so that the AKB may encourage other buildings which consistently present a beautiful appearance. The AKB will meet November 11 at the Arlington Heights Federal Savings and Loan to elect new officers and plan future activities. Members plan to continue programs in landscaping the Williams Chicago & Western Union light of view through town. The steep

'Green' Christmas Feel Rich? Shop Neiman-Marcus

By DONNA NOVAK

For those of you who are having trouble finding gifts for the people on your Christmas list, the Neiman-Marcus store in Chicago is the place to go. The store is a treasure trove of gifts for everyone.

19 Real Estate Sales Recorded

County Recorder Sidney R. Olson listed 19 real estate transfers in his weekly Wednesday and Thursday listings. The transfers include a variety of properties in different parts of the county.

Brighten Up Rooms Like This

Paint a garden in your room. It's a feeling of summer all year long. You can have a garden in your room. It's a feeling of summer all year long.

There are some decorating ideas from the July "Seven" which suggest:

Curtains of a soft color and a small cabinet behind it — especially good for a small apartment room. Hang a table behind the curtains as a small plant pot. Hang a table behind the curtains as a small plant pot.

New Program Has Ideas For Healthier Gardens

A 15 minute color video program on garden bark is now available in this area for people interested in gardening. The program is a 15 minute color video program on garden bark.

Now! We pay and compound earnings quarterly on both passbook savings and savings certificates.

All the things that money can buy now happen faster than ever when you save at Bell Savings. Earnings on both Passbook Savings and Savings Certificates are paid and compounded every three months. And both earn the highest legal rates in Chicago. What's more, the minimum for a 6 month Bell Savings certificate is just $7500. Savings at Bell are insured safe and backed by over $550 million in assets. And if a new home is on your mind, ask about Bell's 1/10% Mortgage Interest Rate Plan which assures you of the most equitable rate at all times. Open 8:45 to 6:00 Monday through Friday.

*Savings certificates issued for 6 months in minimum amounts of $7500 and up, in multiples of $500.
